There will be no bash in September

September meeting will feature Guatemalan weaving that is sold in the Dream Shop at Eastern State Hospital.

In October, Shirley will present a program on Diamond rag rugs.

In November, Jerry will tell us all about computer weaving drafts.

December will bring the annual Christmas gift exchange. Start thinking now about what you will be making.

Events outside our guild:

Clotho's Children would like to invite spinners and friends in the Williamsburg area to attend our Silk Trunk Show on September 17, 11-4 at St. Joseph's Villa, 8000 Brook Road (Route 1 and Parham Road). Jan Glass has been busy coordinating with Chasing Rainbows to present a trunkful of silk and silk blend fibers which we will have the opportunity to purchase. There will be dyed bombyx, tussah, blends of silk and merino, silk and cashmere and much more available. Bring your wheels and spindles (and your checkbook!) and enjoy a day with your fiber friends in Richmond!

No minutes were taken at the July meeting held at Pam's house in Mathews. Everyone had a good time eating and doing various fiber crafts. The biggest group made felt hats in extreme heat. (Heat is not a required element in felt making.)
