April 18, 2016
James City County Recreation Center

Meeting called to order by Marsha Rehkamp at 10:05 am

Correspondence:

A woman is downsizing and has lots of things to get rid of, mostly spinning stuff. She is in Newport News. Information came out in an email.

Minutes: Accepted as written

Treasurer's Report: $2,850.55. Mo Purl order is subtracted and the yarns are in. Jerry Smith rejoined.

Committee Reports:

Membership: 37 members

Sunshine: Cindy is sick.

Website: No new information.

Historian: no report

Workshops: need suggestions. Several were suggested – supplemental warps and Ikat. Helen is doing Ikat, maybe she can teach it. The instructor is Sigafoose.

Programs: June, July, and August meetings will be at the James County Public Library

April: wet felted bags.

May: prepare cartoons for Theo Moorman or tapestry

June: Theo Moorman with Janet

November: clay buttons

There will also be a spin in and perhaps Cindy can do one on sherrit

Another possibility is show and tell from the rug workshop at the end of May

Hospitality :

May 2: Linda C.

April Snacks: Debbie and Claudia

May Snacks: Kim and Marsha

Old Business

Janet reported that she and Micki D. were at Arts on Main opening night.

Last meeting we discussed getting a subscription to the new quarterly magazine, Ply.

- Motion: The guild buy a 1 year subscription to Ply

The motion passed

New Business

The guild can support a program, but there needs to be a vote on it ahead of time.

The Williamsburg Farmers Market is the 1st weekend in June, the 4th. If you are going you should get there 7:30ish and bring a project you can work on. It will break up at 11 – 11:30. If it rains we will not go. Will send around a sign-up sheet in May.
