Old Business

Next meeting
James City County Recreation Center, Room
C, on October 19th

Bashes
On October 5th, we will meet in the library to take down our display.

New Business

Possible ways to raise money were discussed—no conclusions. It was suggested that we have a sign in the library to advertise the guild.

Linda C. and Janet agreed to be the nominating committee, to put together a slate of officers for 2016. They will present the slate at the October meeting.

Show & Tell

Barbara brought a knitted lace jacket and showed a mitten in progress Selma brought a small afghan Carolyn brought a baby blanket/shawl Marsha brought gebrochon towels and some bleached yarn
Sandi showed a sample and a Christmas decoration
Kathy showed three scarves and an overshot sample Debbie showed a painted warp blouse
Janet showed a Moorman tapestry

Programs

Ingrid was absent, therefore had no report on future programs. Other committees had no reports.
There was discussion of possible programs on Tamari balls, possibly in March.

Jen's Spinach Artichoke Dip

1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup sour cream
½ tsp. Salt
1 tsp. Black pepper
2 cups grated Parmesan cheese
10 oz. package frozen chopped spinach (thaw and squeeze out excess water)
1 cup marinated artichokes, chopped
2 garlic cloves, minced

Preheat oven 350.

In a small bowl combine mayo & sour cream.
Add remaining ingredients in order, mixing after each addition.
Put mixture into a lightly greased 4 cup casserole dish.
Bake about 30 minutes, until top is browned and bubbly.

(Can be refrigerated and reheated after baking. Easy to make half a recipe.)
