

*Williamsburg
Spinners & Weavers
Guild*

P.O. Box 2086
Williamsburg, VA 23187
<http://Williamsburgspinweave.org>

---

---

January Meeting

Monday 1/19/09

10:00 am (9:30 am social time) to 1:00 pm
Room C, James City County Recreation Center,
5301 Longhill Road, Williamsburg.

*Happy
New Year*

Program

Sandi Petty
Sewing with Handwovens

Refreshments

Savory - Judy Mooers
Sweet - Marsha Rehkamp

---

This newsletter is the voice of the guild. Please help to make it a sharing of knowledge and skill.

Send anything you think the other members would be interested in — book reviews, websites of interest, tips, techniques — whatever else might be of interest.

Send to Barbara Frey at blcallis@yahoo.com or write it up and give it to me at a meeting.

Thanks, Barbara
Newsletter Editor

Minutes for December 15, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 10 am by President Judy Mooers. Minutes from our November 17, 2008 meeting were approved as written. Our current bank balance is $3,202.36 Dues for 2009 in the amount of $20/member are now due to Treasurer Ingrid Kross. Judy passed around a refreshment schedule for 2009.

Bash

Peggy Naaci will host a bash on Monday, January 5. Call Peggy at 804-966-5254 if you plan to attend.

Library report

Ingrid Kross brought copies of Weaver's Craft.

Sunshine

Several members offered updates on Selma Moore's husband, Gerald, who is being treated for cancer.

Membership

No report.

Program

In January Sandi Petty will offer a program on sewing with handwovens. In February Micki Decker will offer a program on weaving neclaces on a board using the Helen Banes technique. The March slot is open. In April Sharon Davis will offer a program on tapestry crochet. In May Rosalie Brown will host a dyeing workshop at her home in Matthews. Judy asked for members' opinions on other program ideas.

Show and Tell

John Janson — handwoven sport coat
Jeff Cleveland — beading sample on his handmade loom
Sandy Petty — color gamp vest
Barbara Frey — handknit caps for kids; lace scarf and hat; handspun linen
Alice Noyes — sleigh basket; handspun yarn; V-shaped knit shawl, afghan; rug; handspun table runner; crocheted ornaments
Naomi Marks — handknit socks
Jane Gustafson — handwoven scarf
Birdie Burton — shawl made by her daughter
Rosalie Brown — various mistakes (dyed yarn skein that came apart; handwoven mohair; handwoven cotton vest)
Marsha Rehkeamp — jacket
Judy Mooers — vest knit from leftover yarn
Beth Palmer — multi-color handwoven scarf

We enjoyed our traditional December program of delicious refreshments and gift exchange. Members also modeled handspun, handwoven, and other handmade garments.

Meeting adjourned and refreshments enjoyed.

Respectfully submitted, Beth Palmer

Members in Attendance

Virginia Banks, David Banks, Rosalie Brown, Birdie Burton, Jeff Cleveland, Barbara Frey, Jane Gustafson, Bob Hecker, John Janson, Ingrid Kross, Naomi Marks, Judy Mooers, Peggy Naaci, Alice Noyes, Beth Palmer, Sandi Petty, Marsha Rehkamp, Donna Von Biela

---

Officers

President
Vice President
Treasurer
Secretary

Rosalie Brown
Judy Mooers
Ingrid Kross
Beth Palmer

