( Wonderful!)

President Lisa opened the meeting at 10:00 am.

Minutes approval: Motion to approve the previous meeting minutes by David Plunkett and seconded by Kate Swanson. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report: Kathy Kuhn stated we have over $10,000 in the account but did not have the exact numbers with her.

MAFA Report: Tabled.

Website: Sara got together with Margaret Briggs from MAFA and learned how to make changes. Margaret Briggs will no longer be the MAFA Webmaster.

Chippokes: We had a lot of interactions and had a good time. The consensus is that we would be happy to do it again next year.

Peace Hill: Kris reported that we have nine (9) people signed up to demo on November 1st. She will send out more info via e-mail.

Arts on Main: Kate spoke about the annual holiday market. Items would need to be there by the last week in November. Our guest, Alisa Potter, is the point of contact for that. Kate mentioned that small gift type items are usually best sellers.

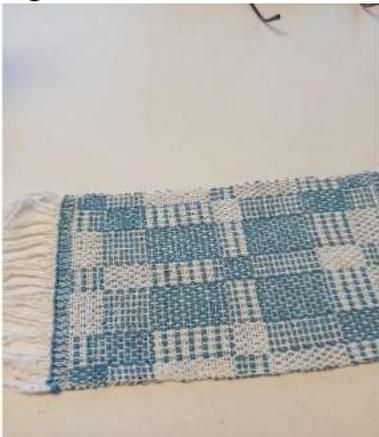

Janet Andersen announced, weather permitting, a dying workshop would be held at the CW weaver's shop the last Saturday of this month.

Cindy mentioned an advanced Inkle Loom workshop; details will be forthcoming.

Goodie began her Pumpkin Faces needle felting workshop. We broke for Lunch at 12:00, show and tell at 12:30. Workshop resumed at 1:00.

Show and Tell

Ingrid Shared a woven "crackle" coaster:

And a Kromski Rigid Heddle Loom she got at the Bargain Box in Yorktown for $6.
Janet Andersen showed a knitted Pumpkin using yarn she dyed with Bright Lights Cosmos;

Janet Mathews showed us a Table Runner using a “crackle” pattern that is part of her Master Weaver Level 3:

And a scarf woven with silk and variegated yarn. She kept it very airy by building gaps in the warp:

Tina showed off her fresh leaf Indigo dyed top:

And Cindy showed us Purses made from the Looms we used to weave pumpkins at a previous meeting:

Our next meeting will be November 17th at King of Glory Lutheran Church in Williamsburg, 4897 Longhill Road. Room 313.

Congrats to Catherine, for her display at Williamsburg Contemporary Art Gallery.

Many thanks to those of you who helped at the Williamsburg Library show! And your thoughtful Demo's! (Kathy, Linda C., Goodie, Catherine, Janet G., Ginger, Caron, Janet A., Sandy V., Kate, Karen C. and more I do not know....)
(No one sent pictures, however I know you enjoyed your workshop with the felted pumpkin faces!
Do you like the photo of our Felter, Goodie, on the frontispiece?)

Thank you to Liz Bunch, who wrote the minutes and snapped photos. (The work of two people!)
