WSWG Meeting November 17, 2025
At King of Glory Lutheran Church

President Lisa Draper brought the meeting to order at 10:00 am, beginning with the inkle loom presentation by Ingrid and Cindy on how to warp and heddle the looms with groups of teachers and students splitting off for close instruction.

The business meeting was called to order:

Previous minutes were approved with the correction of adding in Caron. Sara motioned to accept with Kate seconding.

Kris reported on Peace Hill; we had a lot of good interactions and sold $61.00 in cardboard looms and key fobs.

Ingrid and Cindy reported that they sold $80.00 in cardboard looms and key fobs at the Sons of Norway Scandinavian Bazaar.

Treasurer's report: Kathy reported that we have $10512.11 in the account. She paid out $188.00 for the Post Office box for a year. She will be paying out $100.00 for our HGA dues plus another $50.00 to the Fiber Trust which helps interns to HGA with expenses.

Dues will be due on an increasing scale to existing members:

Paid by January meeting they are $20.00

Paid by February meeting $25.00

Paid by March meeting $30.00

Cash or check is acceptable.

We will need to vote for officers at the December 15th meeting.

Sara has volunteered to be President, Kathy has agreed to continue in her role as Treasurer, Tina has volunteered to be Vice President with the understanding that there will be a committee for programs. Janet will continue as Sunshine and Newsletter coordinator.

Sunshine Report: November Birthdays: Catherine Bond, Allyson Curcio, and Alicia Marques.

MAFA Report: Linda tried to report via Zoom, but the connection was poor so she will forward an email.

Arts on Main: Items need to be submitted by Thanksgiving week for the Holiday Market, which will start the first Friday in December. Email Alisa for more info, gallerymanager@artsonmain.com.

Website: Sara has figured out how to make changes to the main page, sidebar, and upload newsletters.

Food Bank donations: Tina and her favorite human will transport donations to the local food bank. As a thank you she held a drawing for items made by herself and her husband.

The December 15 meeting will be a potluck and challenge projects are due.

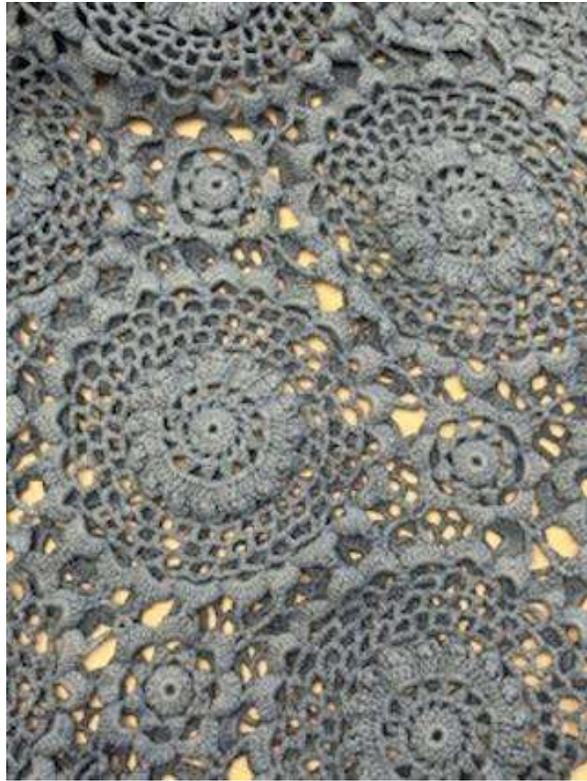

Show and Tell!!

Cindy and Ingrid presented Rigid Heddle information! There were terrific tips for those of us in attendance. Several members got to weave with looms brought from other members. Outstanding!

Lisa showed off her knitted sweater. One-of-a-kind! Liz displayed several wonderful shawls. So elegant with materials of merino, bamboo, and silk! Sara's labor of love included indigo scarves, and repurposing a tablecloth treasure. Remarkable!

Many weavers presented pumpkins of all types!
Crocheted, knitted and woven, oh my! Thank you, Janet A., Tina, Janie, Claudia, Kate, and Kathy!
Admirable!

Dee exhibited a hand crocheted sweater, and it was well received! Wonderful! Ingrid made several towels while she was at peace Hill. Grand! Kathy produced several Pine needle baskets with intriguing inserts. Exceptional! We enjoyed several kinds of pumpkins, and several giggles from the crowd. Weren't you glad to see Sandi's wooden chair being used again? We love our Rigid Heddle Looms!

Tina wore her art. We have hand dyed pants and shirt. And the Shawl was crocheted. Spectacular! We have a picture of Kate's shadow weave scarf. Inspiring!

Good news from Lorraine! She has published a book involving her English Angora Rabbits. It is called "Cee Cee Hops Again"!
